FRIDAY, JANUARY 21. 1743.

Frankfort, Jan. 20.

Yesterday and the Day before the Obsequies of the late Elector Palatine were celebrated in the Church of St. Bartholomew. Count Seckendorff, it is thought from several Circumstances, will quickly make another Trip to Berlin, in order to keep his Prussian Majesty firm in his present Sentiments.

We are exceedingly uneasy at the present Situation of Things in the Empire, and at the secret Negotiations which are carrying on at several Courts in favour of the Queen of Hungary. The Truth is, That it is now evident that Princes cannot be so easily misled of her Dominions as was imagined, and as seemingly ready to espouse what has been always the true Interest of Germany, most of the Princes are become entirely Austrian again, and confide in her as their natural Support. The Firmness of the Allies, and the prodigious Supplies afforded her by Britain, contribute not a little to spread this Humour, and to engage the Germans in general to be either openly or secretly in her Interests. Some of the Bavarian Nobility have not scrupled to lay all this before his Imperial Majesty, to shew him that French Alliances ruined his Dominions, and that nothing but dropping, and uniting heartily in the Common Cause of the Empire, can add Lustre to his Diadem, and secure his Dominions lasting Peace. This, however, is a Chapter, and yet it must be gone thro'. The King of Prussia insists as much on it as any Body; nay, we apprehensive the French will begin first, and quit his Imperial Majesty's Cause, to prevent his quitting theirs. Last Advices from Munich say, the Country is so much eaten up, that it cannot either support Friends or any longer.

Jan. 19. Count Muncho, Privy-Counsellor of War, and who is intrusted by his Majesty with Direction of Affairs in Silesia, arrived here on the 16th to Breslaw. All the Conferences with the Ministers are renewed, and carried on more vivaciously than ever. His Majesty has given the Elector of Saxony's Minister the strongest Assurances that his Majesty has nothing to fear on the Score of Juliers and Bergh. He says his Imperial Majesty will shortly send an Ambassador Extraordinary hither, in order to concert the Means for restoring the Tranquillity of Germany, preventing the March of more Strangers into the Empire. We are assured, that his Majesty's Intercession with the Czarina, has, at last, prevailed for the Discharge of the Prince and Princess of Brunswick, and that her Imperial Majesty had promised to send her Orders to that purpose, as soon as she returns to Peterburgh. We are very apprehensive, that notwithstanding all the Pains his Majesty can take, a War with a certain Power will break out in the Summer. Several Princes and States have of late discovered contradictory Intentions, and inconsistent Schemes, to have been offered them by the Ministers of that Potentate, which ended in Measures not only against their Interests, but their Intentions also; and it is whispered, that a Plot of this Kind, which has been lately laid open, had more effect on a certain Pacifick State, and engaged it in a sudden Turn of Councils, than could have been produced by all the Applications of its Neighbours.

Düsseldorf, Jan. 22. We flatter ourselves, that we shall enjoy the Presence of his Highness the Elector of Saxony, our most Serene Duke. We hope, for the future, his Electoral Highness will keep his Residence here, or at Mannheim, that is alternately, which will be of great Service to us. The Marquis d'Intre is the Great Master and Prime Minister to the New Elector, Baron Wachtendonck, Grand Chamberlain, Baron von Berg, Great Chancellor, M. Stengel, Minister for Ecclesiastical and Civil Affairs, the Privy-Counsellor Weiter, Minister for Matters relating to the Palace or War, and Privy-Counsellor Klein, Minister of Conference. According to our last Advices from Bavaria, the French was in Motion, and so were the Austrians. Some Letters from Paris intimate, that the Court having just Reason to apprehend an Invasion, either of Lorraine, or the three Bishopricks, was resolved to recall all Troops out of Germany, but some Politicians here suspect this Resolution was taken much earlier, and that the Marshals Broglie, and Belleisle, received like Orders at the same time; and thus they account for the former's deserting Marshal Seckendorff immediately after the Siege of Braunau. The Report of the Elector's recalling his Troops out of the Emperor's Service, is premature at least, and, some say, without Foundation, tho' it is certainly very probable, that, as Things stand at present, his Highness would be glad to have his Forces in his own Dominions.

Extract of a Private Letter.

Geneva, Jan. 16. The Spanish Army, since their last entering into Savoy, have caused a Body of 2000 Dragoons to advance within two Miles of this City; and have threatened to force a Bridge over the Arno, in case it was not given up to them immediately. They have committed great Outrages, not on the Savoyards only, but even on the Subjects of this Republick, and yet the Infant Don Philip gave the strongest Assurances to the Deputies sent by our Magistrates, of his having no Designs whatsoever to the Prejudice of the Republick. Without relying however upon this, the Councils of 25, and of 200, have resolved to call the great Council, which is the Representative of the People, in order to obtain their Consent to demand of the Cantons of Zurich and Bern, a Body of 1200 Men, and to receive them by way of Garrison into the City; and no Question is made of their obtaining the People's Consent. In the mean time, the Guards are doubled, and a Troop of 100 Horse, all Volunteers, patrol about the Glacis of the Fortifications of this City, and the Territory adjacent.

When the King of Sardinia retired out of Savoy, his Army did not not consist of above 9500 Men, whereas the Spaniards were at least 20,000 strong, and are said to expect great Reinforcements in the Spring. The Militia of the Canton of Bern line the Banks on their Side the Lake from one end to the other, having some Posts within Cannon-shot of the Spaniards.

ANTI-SYPHILICON.

THE only short and most infallible

Cure in the Universe for the Venereal Disease

from the lightest Infection to the most extreme and dangerous Degree of it, even when the Blood and Joints are so roughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd CLAPS, with all their attending Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely cured off in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Joints from being tainted with any remaining Residue on one Hand, or a seminal Gleet or Weakness to happen on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Disease attended with Nocturnal Pains, universal Breakings out, and all the other most exasperated Symptoms, are overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cured than by Salivation, Inunguation, or any other Method whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as to be capable of the only apposite Remedy or true Venereal Antidote in the World; and this some Thousands have to their great Joy experienced.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Disfigurement, nor requires Confinement; but may be taken, and the Cure be accomplish'd, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury, may by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to be hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.

All such likewise as doubt they have some remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may by a few Doses of it entirely free themselves from all Suspicion of that Kind, for it administered no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to the main in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and on that Account, in all scorbutick, scrophulous, and even leprous Eruptions or Foulnesses of the Skin, Glandulous Swellings and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose than any other Medicine yet known can by ten.

The Price of this most Noble ANTI-SYPHILICON is but Six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is supplied by the Author to be had only at Mr. RAYMOND's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up with a Book of Instructions, by the Perusal of which, all Persons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease, may perfectly understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is lurking rooted out of their Bodies.

Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scoury.
